

Weather to Remain About Same

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas' Fourth of July picnics appear to be in little, if any, danger of rain Tuesday as the driest air mass in several weeks moves across the state.

The U.S. Weather Bureau has forecast clear to partly cloudy sky conditions with mild days and cool nights through Tuesday.

The bureau says the maximum temperatures will reach the 90s Tuesday.

Minimum temperatures tonight and Tuesday night will be in the 50s and 60s.

The maximum temperature reported in Arkansas Sunday was 92 degrees at Little Rock. Fayetteville recorded the overnight low, 56 degrees.

British Queen Begins Tour of Expo 67

By JOHN VINOCUR
MONTREAL (AP) — Queen Elizabeth began a seven-hour tour of Expo 67 today behind some of the most stringent security measures ever seen in this area. Her subjects were kept away from her by water, guards and rope barriers.

A slight rain was falling as the queen and Prince Philip, her husband, stepped down the gangplank from the yacht, Britannia, which brought them here after a visit to Ottawa. The queen was carrying an umbrella.

Arkansas Death Toll Reaches 3

Arkansas' holiday death toll mounted to three Sunday night when Graham Thomas Cole, 23, of Paragould, died at a Memphis hospital of injuries suffered earlier in the evening in a two-car collision on U.S. 63 near Gilmore (Crittenden County), about 20 miles northwest of West Memphis.

State Troopers Charles Boles and Jimmy Hicks said Cole's wife, Sandy, 19, a passenger in the automobile driven by her husband, and Ray White, 50, of Mpls.-St.P., cloudy 93 74 .20 driver of the other car, also New York, cloudy 83 66 2.08 were injured. The extent of their injuries was not immediately determined.

George Washington Scott Jr., 43, of Granby, Mo., was killed Saturday night when his car left Interstate 40 about six miles east of Clarksville and overturned six times. State Trooper Bob Pritchard said Scott's car traveled about 400 yards after leaving the highway.

Crosley Tedman, 20, of Camden, lost his life Friday night in a one-car smashup on a curve of a city street in Camden.

Lightning Kills Two in Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Heavy showers with heavenly fireworks ushered in the Fourth of July holiday period in Florida, with two men killed by lightning and a boy critically burned by another bolt.

More than 5 inches of rain fell in less than two hours at Loxahatchee in Palm Beach County Sunday.

Victims of lightning while fishing in separate canals near Miami were Douglas Herin, 25, and Willie James Jose, 42. Timothy Butterfield, 9, was in a critical condition in a Miami hospital after being struck by a bolt while standing under a tree near his Miami home.

Shriver Is Battling for His Agency

By TOM SEPPY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sargent Shriver is battling Congress for the life of his command post—the Office of Economic Opportunity—and the usually optimistic antipoverty director concedes the future looks bleak.

"There might be no war on poverty by the time we're through," Shriver said recently, estimating the odds are 60 to 40 against passage of the Johnson administration's antipoverty legislation now before Congress.

Shriver's primary concerns are money and a Republican effort to dismantle the OEO and move its programs to such established departments as Labor and Health, Education and Welfare.

Johnson has requested $2.06 billion for the OEO for fiscal 1968, compared with the $1.6 billion appropriated in fiscal 1967. Shriver believes an appropriation of $1.7 billion to $2 billion might be wrung from Congress.

Some congressmen believe the appropriation will be the same as fiscal 1967.

The difference between what Congress authorizes in spending and what it actually appropriates can spell the life or death of his program, says Shriver.

He notes, for instance, that Congress authorized $1.75 billion for the antipoverty agency last year and then appropriated $130 million less, forcing sharp cutbacks in major programs.

With rising prices, says Shriver, just getting the same amount of money doesn't mean standing still, it means dropping back.

In June appearances before the House and Senate, and in many speeches, Shriver and his top aides said poverty can be defeated and the OEO should remain the primary coordinating force. They said there is a national consensus against dismantling OEO.

Shriver told Congress the basic question is: "Will the agency you brought into being to serve the poor, to speak for the poor, to marshal America's resources on behalf of the poor, continue to do the job you set for it?"

If Republicans—especially those in the House—have their way, the OEO won't, despite the long list of organizations and public and private citizens backing the agency.

The GOP "Opportunity Crusade," introduced by Reps. Albert A. Quie of Minnesota and Charles E. Goodell of New York, would dismantle the OEO by distributing its programs among other agencies.

It would replace the OEO with a three-man council of economic opportunity advisers in the White House.

Quie says the shift would make the antipoverty program more effective.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Dr. John Sugg of Fayetteville, Ark., a member of the board of trustees of the American Optometric Association since 1962 and the organization's vice president in 1965 and 1966, was elected president here Saturday as the association closed its 70th annual meeting.

Fired Worker Raps Prison Management

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Herman Schneider, 33, a night security officer at Cummins Prison Farm from Feb. 12 until April 22, was fired and told to "get out of Arkansas" when he threatened to reveal instances of brutality, unsanitary conditions and general mistreatment of inmates, the Pine Bluff Commercial reported Sunday.

The newspaper said Schneider went to the office of state Prison Supt. O. E. Bishop to bring his attention to "countless abuses" that had been reported and on which no action had been taken.

"I informed Bishop that since he would take no action, I would go see Bob Scott (Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's aide for prison affairs)," the Commercial quoted Schneider as saying. "Bishop then informed me that I was terminated."

The newspaper said a prison warden later warned Schneider to "get out of Arkansas," adding that the former Toledo, Ohio, policeman had left the state.

The Commercial said Schneider told reporter Tucker Steinmetz in an interview prior to his departure that he wanted to "spill his guts to someone" before he left.

It said he detailed instances in which inmates were "handcuffed to bars high enough from the floor that they were dangling from their wrists."

An inmate suffering from "seizures similar to those of an epileptic" was denied medical treatment and was punished several times for having the seizures, it said.

The newspaper said Schneider also talked of "filth in the cafeteria."

"I have seen and smelled and been handed rotten meat in sandwiches by inmates," it quoted him as saying.

And when the butcher complained of rats at the slaughterhouse, the Commercial said, "the business office sent him a cat."

Ordinarily, the kitchen and dining room were overrun with roaches, the newspaper reported, and eating and cooking utensils carried residue of previous meals.

Schneider said that before an inspection by the state Penitentiary Study Commission and prior to a meeting of southeast Arkansas law enforcement officers "it was just like in the services when the general's coming to see you . . . They had places cleaned up that hadn't been cleaned in ages," the Commercial said.

It said Schneider worked briefly at Tucker Prison Farm after leaving Cummins and had no quarrel with Murton or the operation at Tucker.

"He (Murton) is on the right track," it quoted Schneider as saying.

U.S. Again Must Defend War Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration appears headed for another defense of its Vietnam policies in Congress, with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee providing a familiar battleground.

The committee—whose members include some of the most persistent congressional critics of President Johnson's war policies—has set the stage for renewed debate on Vietnam by roughly handling the administration's foreign aid bill.

The panel voted to force the President to get congressional approval before adding countries to the foreign aid list.

And members have indicated they also may vote to deny Johnson's request for two-year authorizations.

Behind opposition to the $3.1 billion foreign aid package the President has asked for the next 12 months is Vietnam.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has said he may not back the measure because of his opposition to the war. And another committee member, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., has pledged to oppose the bill so long as the United States continues bombing North Vietnam.

Fulbright has said the committee actions are subject to change after it has heard from administration officials, probably soon after Congress ends its 10-day July 4th recess on July 10.

Big Postage Stamp Ring Is Broken

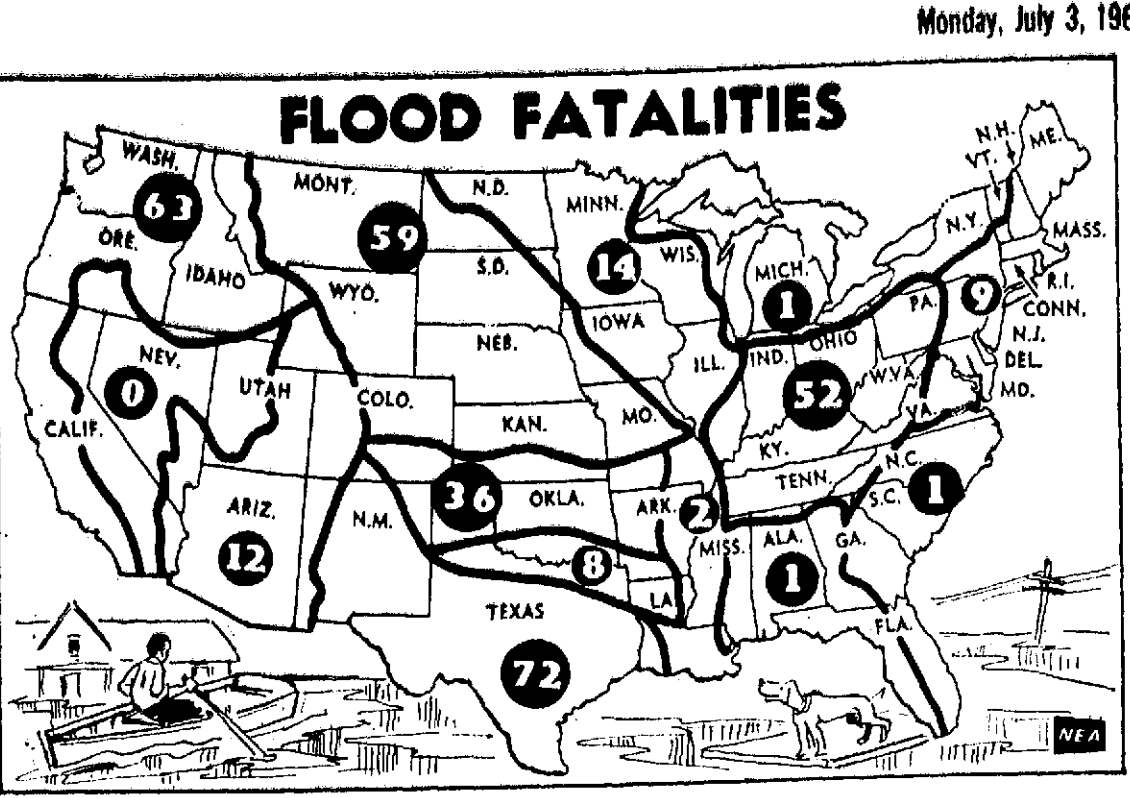

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Stamps taken in post office burglaries at Salem, Flippin, Bauxite and Lake Hamilton during 1966 were part of the $250,000 in stolen stamps disposed of over a two-year period in a stamp-fencing operation in Kansas City, according to postal officials.

Postal Inspector N. H. Kershaw of Little Rock said Saturday that James Harvey Bradley of Kansas City was convicted in the fencing operation and was sentenced to 35 years in prison after a federal District Court trial last month at Kansas City.

He said Bradley, who pleaded guilty, was one of 20 persons indicted at Kansas City in April on charges of conspiring to commit post office burglaries and receive the stamps taken in them.

Kershaw said a total of $19,541 worth of stamps were taken in the Arkansas burglaries—$3,576 worth at Salem on March 23, $2,322 worth at Flippin on March 23, $6,749 worth at Bauxite March 12 and $4,894 worth at Lake Hamilton July 14.

Rockefeller to Meet With Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The decision over whether Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller will go ahead with his appointment of Lynn Davis as State Police director apparently will remain in limbo until Wednesday.

Rockefeller plans to meet with the State Police Commission Wednesday to discuss the situation.

Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell issued an opinion Friday night that Davis, an FBI agent in Los Angeles, does not meet the state's requirement that a State Police director must have lived in Arkansas 10 years prior to his appointment.

Davis, 33, has not lived in Arkansas since he joined the FBI almost six years ago. He is a native of Texarkana and says he maintains a residence there.

The governor declined to say at a Saturday news conference whether he would go ahead and appoint Davis despite the attorney general's opinion. He said, however, he would be "comfortable" if a decision were made at the Wednesday meeting.

Glassboro Folks Want to Visit Russia

GLASSBORO, N.J. (AP) — A group of residents of this community, where President Johnson and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin met two days last month, have asked the President to help finance a trip to Russia for 100 townspeople.

In a telegram to Johnson Sunday, the Glassboro Citizens Committee asked for "immediate assistance" to obtain $60,000 to finance a three-week trip as part of an exchange program with the Soviet Union.

The committee of 17 residents said in its telegram that funds are available to the President under the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961.

Last Thursday, Dean Leonard Zion of Brandeis University, active in the Citizens Exchange Corps, suggested the trip during a talk with Dr. Thomas Robinson, president of Glassboro State College.

Under the proposal, the 100 Glassboro residents would make the trip with a group of 130 the corps is sending to Russia on July 14.

France works on Hydrogen Bomb

PARIS (AP) — France, working toward explosion of its first hydrogen bomb next year, detonated a "low-yield" atomic device Sunday at its Pacific test center at Mururoa, the Defense Ministry reported.

The ministry said the explosion was the last in France's 1967 atomic test series.

France now has an atomic strike force of more than 60 supersonic Mirage bombers, a major factor in President Charles de Gaulle's foreign policy. It hopes to have ground-to-ground missiles, to be located in southeast France, operational by 1969, and nuclear missile submarines operational after 1970.

Calendar of Events

SATURDAY, JULY 8

An adult dance will be held at the Hope Country Club on Saturday, July 8 with host couples, Mr. and Mrs. John Graves, Jack Lowe, and Joe Hankins. A band will play beginning at 9:30 p.m. Admission is $1.50 per couple.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. H. C. Whitworth entertained her Friday Bridge Club on June 30, and the two tables of players included one club guest, Mrs. Lloyd Coop. Mexican sunflowers lent a party atmosphere to the setting.

High scorers at the conclusion of play were Mrs. C. C. Lewis and Mrs. Dewey Camp. The hostess served lemon freeze and coffee for refreshments.

ELLIS - PADDIE MARRIAGE IS MADE KNOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Ellis announce the marriage of their daughter Julia Lemley, to Mr. Kenneth C. Paddie, son of Mrs. Marie Paddie, on April 16, 1967.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Miller, Jr., Indianapolis, Ind., announce the birth of a daughter on Friday, June 16. She is their second child but their first girl. She weighed 6 pounds, 12 ounces and has been named Shelley Blackwell. Grandparents are Mrs. G. A. Hobbs of Hope and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Miller, Sr. of Dallas.

Coming, Going

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roberts had for weekend guest Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sutton, of Gladeville, Texas, and Mrs. L. H. Sutton of Texarkana, and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sutton and daughter, Belenda of Hope.

Capt. and Mrs. Jim Lewis and two sons were recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Lewis en route from Homestead AFB, Fla., to Lackland AFB, Tex.

Maj. and Mrs. John Amos and family have returned to Ft. Lee, Va., after a two-week visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Amos in Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whitten in Bodcaw. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kannarr and family, Wichita, Kan., have also been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amos.

Mrs. G. A. Hobbs is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George E. Miller, Jr. and family in Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley W. Crouch and daughter in Hackensack, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Meade Jones, Washington, D. C., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Teddy M. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Thrash.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ambrose, Jr. of Tulsa left Monday after a week with Mrs. K. E. Ambrose. They were joined over the weekend by Dr. Jack Ambrose of El Dorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Lavender, Irving, Tex., went home Thursday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Roy Allison. They attended the Holland-Alison wedding in Richmond, Va., June 9, entertained with a brunch for the wedding party on that day, and before coming to Hope visited in Washington, D. C., several points in Virginia, and Fayetteville, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bradford and family, Ozan, went to Six Flags Over Texas last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell from Lexington, Kentucky are visiting Mrs. Russell's mother, Mrs. Garrett Story.

PROBLEMS OF DIVORCE

Dear Helen:
I raised my children alone, after another woman took my husband away from me and married him. She is an overbearing, over-dressed, loudmouthed slob, but my children are on fairly good terms with her as they visit their father often.

Comes the time for graduation parties and showers, and I will not attend any affair that she is invited to. Therefore, I'm forced to stay home from my own children's celebrations. After our daughter's graduation, her father gave her a big dinner at a hotel. That woman acted as hostess in my place!

Now there are bridal showers. The "new" Mrs. X has managed to get herself invited to most of them. When I refuse to come, people say I should stop being bitter after 12 years. How can I, when she took away my whole life! — MRS. X

Dear Mrs. X:
"That woman" didn't take away your whole life. She merely took a husband whom might have wandered anyway. You could make a new life for yourself if you'd knock off the "poor deserted wife" role and stop hating. However, your friends show poor taste when they invite both

Dear Helen:
How can a daughter-in-law tell a sensitive mother-in-law that she appreciates and admires her for making her own clothes, but has no desire to do so for herself and three children? I enjoy housekeeping and cooking, but sewing makes me nervous. With wise shopping, I outfit our daughters quite reasonably. Yet my mother-in-law is always remarking, "It's a shame you don't sew..." Her daughters do!

I don't want to create hard feelings, so should I just remain quiet when these digests? — N.W.P.

Dear N:
Face it: seamstresses are great crusaders. They don't mean to needle, but they keep hoping for a conversion. Smile and tell her that it's a shame sewing makes you nervous, but — "I'll let you teach our daughters the minute they're old enough!" — H.

films from the West have confronted deadly serious Soviet officials with key dilemmas. Refusal to honor such films hurts efforts to present a liberal image abroad and dampens the prestige of the Moscow festival. But the Soviets also fear that honoring such films adds pressure for relaxation of controls on the arts here, permitting production of critical films.

They want the prestige of an international film festival award bestowed on productions of the only Soviet-approved art school, "socialist realism." The American film "Who is Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" will be shown outside the competition to an invitation-only audience of Soviet film workers. The public won't see it.

The Soviets always invite scores of the world's stars to attend but few appear, partly because the scheduled showing of their films is worked out only at the last minute. This time only Leslie Caron and French actor Robert Hossein, both jury members, are listed as sure to attend.

Among Americans, George Hamilton, Warren Beatty, Shirley Maclaine, Shirley Temple and Jack Palance are tentatively listed as coming.

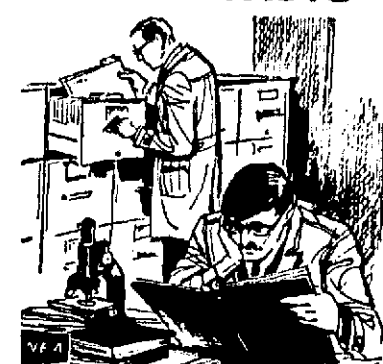

Russian-born composer Dmitri Tiomkin — "High Noon" — is on the 15-member jury. It has a majority of eight Communist representatives, with a Russian chairman.

Two American directors, both involved in jury battles in past Moscow festivals, are expected to attend, Fred Zinnemann and Stanley Kramer.

Zinnemann's film, "A Man for All Seasons," will be shown as the British entry.

A million people, mostly Eskimos and reindeer herders of Siberia and Europe, live within the frigid Arctic region.

Curious Go by Mansfield Burial Site

PEN ARGYL, Pa. (AP) — Crowds of curious seekers arriving in this small, quiet hamlet to see the burial site of actress Jayne Mansfield.

But the family of the 34-year-old Miss Mansfield, who became a famous Hollywood sex symbol, reiterated its intention to keep the final rites today simple and private.

And there has been little for the curious to see: a tarpaulin over a newly opened grave near the entrance to Fairview Cemetery, a neat white house where Miss Mansfield lived as a child.

The actress was killed Thursday along with her attorney and chauffeur in a car-truck crash in Louisiana.

Meeting Sunday night at the home of Miss Mansfield's aunt, Mrs. Bert Milheim, relatives, and Hungarian-born strongman Mickey Hargitay, the actress' second husband, made final plans for services.

Accustomed to and welcoming the glare of publicity while alive, the actress was to be buried in relative privacy, Richard Milheim, a cousin, stressed.

Milheim said the family wanted a quiet, dignified burial "and we have 300 policemen" to insure it.

Services were set for 2 p.m. EDT.

Born in Bryn Mawr, Pa., on the Philadelphia Main Line, Miss Mansfield moved here with her mother, now Mrs. Harry Peers of Dallas, Tex., after her father, Herbert Palmer, died when she was 2 years old.

She had lived in this small mining town for several years with the Milheims and with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer, who lived nearby. Her grave is near her grandparents' and not far from her father's.

A—The study of the relationship of organisms—including man—to their environment.

Q—Is shorthand a modern invention?

A—No, the first shorthand system was devised nearly 2,000 years ago. It was the creation of Marcus Tullius Tiro who, in 63 B.C., used it to transcribe Cicero's speeches.

THE WELL CHILD

Before you decide whether to send your child to a summer day camp you should consider the following: He will be better off at home if he is highly creative and full of enthusiasm for projects of his own devising, if most of his friends will be available to play with, if you yourself can arrange an outing or two for him each week or if you have investigated the local day camps and are not satisfied with their facilities, sanitary regulations, programs, etc.

On the other hand, your child will derive great benefits from a day camp if there is no suitable place for him to play outdoors near your home, if he needs encouragement to meet new friends or to engage in outdoor sports, or if his friends will be attending and he has his heart set on it.

There are other factors that may influence your decision but the important point is that no general rule can be made to fit all children. Your child is an individual and what was best for his brother or sister is not necessarily what will be best for him.

Q—As a result of some horseplay my 8-year-old son got chewing gum in his eyebrows and hair. I couldn't get it out. What would you suggest?

A—You have a choice of three proven methods. (1)
You can cut away the gummy hair, (2) you can apply ice cubes direct from the freezer to the gum, making it brittle enough to be easily removed, or (3) you can rub in some warm milk chocolate, allow it to dry then wash it out with soap and warm water.

Q—My son, 5, has a man-sized colon and has trouble having a bowel movement every day. Will he outgrow this condition or should he have some sort of treatment?

A—In persons with this inborn defect it is normal to have one very large bowel movement every three to nine days. Studies should be made to determine whether or not normal nervous control of your son's colon is present. If not it may be necessary to have the involved segment removed. In any case he will not outgrow it.

seven that way if the jack of hearts drops doubleton. No, I won't try for seven but this looks like the best play. Here goes!"

Let's follow his play now.
At trick two he enters dummy with the king of diamonds and tries the spade finesse.
When it works, he cashes his second high club and dummy's ace of diamonds. He breathes a sigh of relief and cashes his ace of spades.

At this point he is sure of his contract, irrespective of how the rest of the cards break. He leads a spade toward dummy and trumps with the king. The eight would have held the trick but South is playing absolutely safe for six.

Back comes a club and,
when East follows, South ruffs with the ace. Now he leads his last spade and dummy's eight of trumps gets overruled but South doesn't care. In fact, when someone points out that he could have made seven if he had tried for it, South only nods happily because six bid and made has to be close to a top, if not actually a top.

Jim asks, "How much advantage do you think a home town expert has in a duplicate tournament when he knows the bidding style of local opponents?"

Oswald: "The advantage is tremendous. It applies particularly in competitive situations. As an example, here is a hand bid by J. G. Ripstra, playing in his home town of Wichita, Kan., in the Missouri Valley Regionals."

Jim: "I see Rip opened with a diamond in the East position."

Oswald: "Normally he would open one club but he knew that South was one of those desperation bidders and Rip wanted to be able to bid clubs later on if South stuck in a nuisance jump bid."

Jim: "South sure stuck in a nuisance jump bid. West could do nothing. He had no idea whether South was a sound bidder or a desperado."

Oswald: "Rip knew that South was a desperado. If South had merely bid two or three spades, Rip would have shown his clubs, but Rip decided to double."

Jim: "After the diamond lead, there was no way for South to avoid the loss of two diamonds, a diamond ruff, and a spade and a heart for down three or minus 500."

Oswald: "Rip's plus 500 turned out to be a top score.

Lowly Angels Turn on the Yankees

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The California Angels looked as if they were on relief 26 games ago, and they have been collecting it ever since from Minnie Rojas.

The 28-year-old bullpen artist saved his ninth game Sunday with two hitless innings as the high-flying Angels beat the New York Yankees 6-4 for their 19th victory in 26 games.

Rojas, in his second major league season, was one of the American League's top relievers before the sport, but the Angels were a poverty-stricken crew until he really began dish- out the dividends on the $2- 500 California paid for him.

During the spree, the Cuban right-hander has posted four of his seven victories and saved eight other games in 15 appear- ances in which he has given up one earned run in 27 innings.

Most of the other American League winners Sunday shied away from relief, except Boston's John Wyatt saved rookie Gary Waslewski's three-hit 2-1 victory over Kansas City.

Joe Sparda fired a six-hitter in Detroit's 10-0 triumph over the league-leading Chicago White Sox, Baltimore rookie Bill Dill- man blanked Cleveland 1-0 for 6-2-3 innings in a rain-shortened game, and Dean Chance and Jim Merritt pitched Minnesota to a 4-1, 6-1 doubleheader sweep over Washington.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs beat Cincinnati 4-1, Philadelphia outslugged San Francisco 8-7, Houston defeated Los Angeles 5-1, the New York Mets stopped St. Louis 5-4 before losing 3-1, and Atlanta was rained out at Pittsburgh.

The Angels stood last in line— 10 games back—in the AL be- fore Rojas took them by the hand. Sunday's triumph moved them seven games from the front in sixth place, only 2½ games from second.

Rojas, who over-all has nine saves and a 1.65 earned run av- erage in 65 2-3 innings, has ap- peared in 37 of California's 78 games.

Waslewski had a two-hitter going and led on Joe Foy's 11th homer in the eighth inning, but left in the ninth after another hit and a ground out. Wyatt retired the last two hitters to saddle Jim Hunter with the loss despite his three-hitter.

Playoff in Canadian Open Meet

By BOB GREEN
MONTREAL (AP)—Billy Casper is the invisible man of golf. He was subjected to coast-to-coast television coverage in two nations—and no one noticed him until the last five minutes.

But suddenly he was there, center stage in the high drama, on his knees and his arms raised in exultation—a birdie put in the cup and the pressure on Art Wall, the greying, suddenly shaken veteran, who stumbled to a bogey.

And when Wall's five-foot putt curled two inches from the hole, the $200,000 Canadian Open Golf championship was tied and its $30,000 first prize still up for grabs.

"I had two things going for me on 18," said Casper, the two-time U.S. Open champ with the exotic diet. "I knew that if I made that putt I was in second all alone. And I knew that if Art missed it—and the pressure would be on him—a playoff was there."

That's the way it worked out: the two tied at 279 with an 18-hole playoff today. Casper shot a 69 Sunday and Wall a 72.

The playoff starts at 2:15 p.m. EDT, and will be televised na- tionally in two countries, CBS-TV from 5-6 p.m., in the United States and CBC-TV from 4:30-6 p.m. in Canada.

Casper and Wall were one stroke ahead of Steve Reid, 71, Jack Nicklaus, 69, and Ju- lius Boros, 68, all at 260. PGA champ Al Geiberger was alone at 281 after a 71. Grouped at 282 were Arnold Palmer, 70, Tommy Aaron, 70, and Gene Littler, 71.

Wall, a 44-year-old former Masters and Canadian Open champ who led the second and third rounds, had a two-stroke lead going into the rain-interrupted final round Sunday on the 6,600 yard, par 71 Montreal municipal course.

He was implacable and un- perturbed as first Nicklaus, the chubby U.S. Open champ, and then Reid, a 30-year-old part- timer on the pro tour, made runs at him.

Durocher Miracle Still Going

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's been 16 years between miracles for dapper Leo Du- rocher, but he's got a dandy going right now.

Durocher, who piloted the New York Giants to the 1951 pennant with a storybook finish, has his trusty volume out again and what's more, he's got all Chicago believing it.

Some 40,464 frantic fans packed Wrigley Field Sunday and watched the Cubs, who finished 10th last season, grab a share of first place with a 4-1 victory over Cincinnati on Fer- guson Jenkins' three-hitter.

From last to first in half a season. Now how's that for a miracle?

In fact, for a few glorious hours, the Cubs, who haven't finished in the first division since finishing third in 1946, were actually in first place all by themselves. That was after the New York Mets nipped St. Louis 5-4 in the first game of a doubleheader.

But the Cardinals rebounded with a 3-1 victory in the night- cap that earned them a piece of the top spot. In other National League games Sunday, Phila- delphia rallied for an 8-7 victory over San Francisco and Houston nipped Los Angeles 5-4. Atlan- ta's game at Pittsburgh was rained out.

In the American League, Cal- ifornia downed New York 6-4, Detroit shut out Chicago 3-0, Boston nipped Kansas City 2-1, Minnesota swept a doublehead- er from Washington 4-1 and 6-1 and Baltimore blanked Cleve- land 1-0 in a game ended by rain after six innings.

The Chicago fans have a severe if premature case of pen- nant fever brought on by six straight victories and 13 triumphs in 14 starts. They gathered outside the clubhouse after Sunday's game and chant- ed, "We want Leo. We want Leo."

But Durocher wasn't having any. "They're not going to get me out there," he said. "The only time I've seen it like this was when Bobby Thomson hit the homer to win the pennant for the Giants in 1951."

The fans roared everytime the scoreboard posted a Mets' run against St. Louis and when the 5-4 first game final went up, they cheered so loud and long that the Cubs game was de- layed.

French Lady Golfer Wins in Virginia

By WILL GRIMSLEY
HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) —

On the eve of the final round of the Women's National Open Golf Championship, Catherine Lacoste insisted on doing the Charleston in the Club Room of the Homestead.

Midway of her dance, she slipped and fell with a plop on the slick, hardwood floor.

Unabashed, she rose quickly to her feet and finished the dance. The black tie guests, stunned at first, clapped and cheered wildly.

This was the way the uninhi- bited, 22-year-old mademoiselle from Paris approached the United States premier tourna- ment for women from the very beginning.

Unwaved at the prospect of facing America's formidable pros, who play week-in and week-out through most of the year, the French amateur took the lead after the second round after the second round and held on to become the first amateur to win the title.

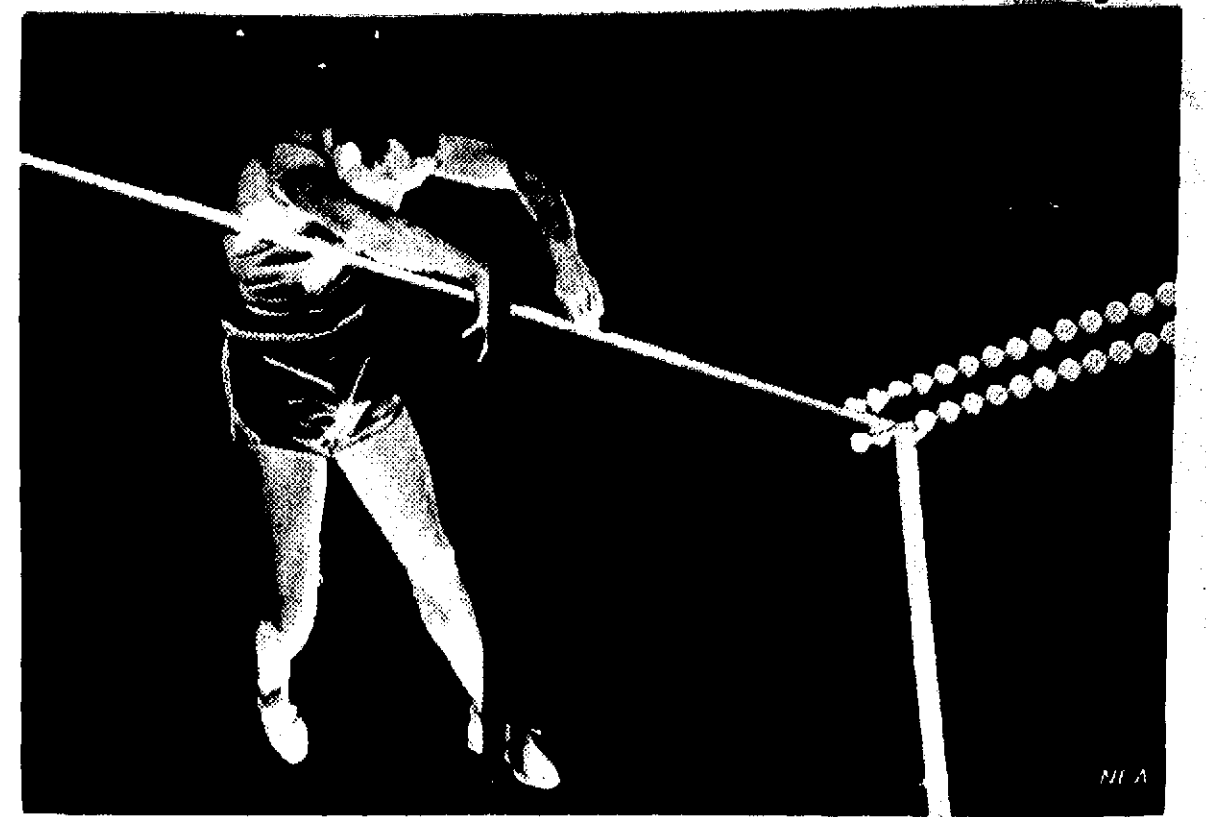

She also was the youngest. She celebrated her 22nd birth- day here last Tuesday. The pre- vious youngest winner was Mickey Wright, who was 23 years, four months old when she won the first of her four opens in 1958.

The bold and bouncy Miss La- coste, carrying one of France's proudest names, stunned Amer- ica's hardened women pros and completely captivated the gal- leries.

On the course, she was a poised performer, playing the game like a veteran beyond her years. Off it, she was an irre- pressible teen-ager, who refused to let golf enter her mind.

Her father is Rene Lacoste, immortal star of France's Davis Cup tennis teams of the 1920s, twice Wimbledon and twice U.S. singles champion of the era of Bill Tilden. Her mother, Simone de la Chaume, was British La- dies Golf Champion 40 years ago.

"This is papa's 63rd birth- day," Catherine said after win- ning the precedent-shattering Women's Open Sunday. "It's a nice birthday for him."

NEWCOMER to the list of world record holders in the pole vault is Paul Wilson of the University of Southern California. Paul recently cleared 17-8, an inch better than Bob Seagren's pending mark of 17-7. Seagren and Wilson are teammates at USC.

Gives Credit to Clothing for Victory

By ED YOUNG
HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) —

"I don't know why I won," said the new U.S. Women's Open golf champion, resplendent in aqua skirt and blue jacket with be- manded lapels. "I think they helped me win."

"They" were the chastened professional golfers, and they knew just what raven-haired Catherine Lacoste of Paris meant in her modest little speech outside the clubhouse of the Cascades Course late Sun- day afternoon.

In this 22nd U.S. Women's Open, the 22-year-old French mademoiselle had become not only the first amateur ever to win, but the first foreigner and the youngest player, as well. She won with a strong 294 — 10 over par for a tough, taxing course.

But she had help from even the best of a corps of proud professionals who many times in the Open's last two days had opportunities to win — and could not grasp them.

Beth Stone of Muskegon, Okla., and Susie Maxwell of Oklahoma City came closest with 296s for the 72-hole grind. Each picked up five strokes in Sun- day's final round with three- over-par 74 while Miss Lacoste was soaring to a 79.

Miss Stone and Miss Maxwell each collected $3,600 as the top- finishing pros.

Three pros who shot 297s — Merle Lindstrom of Ft. Wayne, Ind., with a final round 75; two- time champion Louise Suggs of Delray Beach, Fla., 73, and Sandra Haynie of Ft. Worth, Tex., 71 — each took home $1,033 for sharing fourth place.

The sturdily-built, exuberant Miss Lacoste, who had previous rounds of 71-70-74, was three over par on the front nine Sun- day, then bogeyed the first five holes of the back nine and found herself in peril.

Ends Second, Retains Lead

LE MANS, France (AP) — Denis Hulme of New Zealand finished second to Jack Brab- ham of Australia in the Grand Prix of France Sunday, but re- tained the lead for the world driving championship for 1967 for Formula One autos.

The six points Hulme picked up for his second place gave him a total of 22 to date. Brab- ham now has 15.

one stroke ahead of Miss Suggs; after the 16th, one in front of Miss Stone.

Miss Suggs, however, demol- ished her own cause by double- bogeying the lake-fronted 16th. And, after bogeying the 16th, Miss Lacoste took care of Miss Stone's bid by rolling in a 10- foot putt for a birdie at the 17th.

Seconds after she strode from the 18th green, victory finally secured, Miss Lacoste hurried back to her motel room and tel- ephoned her parents in St. Jean De Luz, France — onetime La- vis Cup tennis great, Rene La- coste, and his wife, Simone, her- self a fine golfer.

"It was 11 o'clock and I waked them up," she said with a grin. "My father said, 'Bravo.' He sounded sleepy."

"But this was his 63rd birth- day, you know, and the last thing he said to be before I left home was, 'You know what you can do for my birthday.' I said, 'Yes, win the Open.' So, you see, I did."

Quick Relief of Burns
Golf and tennis interest more women each summer, and most first-timers invari- ably wind up with burns and blisters that can mar hand beauty. A golf glove is one helpful precaution against such skin irritations. Also carry a little tube of antiseptic first-aid cream and a few adhesive strips in your pocket. The soothing cream quickly relieves pain of burns and blisters and protects from dirt or further damage.

In 1915, there were 21 mil- lion horses in the United States; their number had dwindled to two million by 1960.

Will Bring Daughter More Often

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers right-hander Joe Sparda says he may have to bring his 3-year-old daughter, Debbie, to the ball park more often.

"The last time she came I shut out Baltimore," said Spar- ma, who set down the Chicago White Sox 3-0 on six hits Sun- day.

The victory moved the second place Tigers, who took two of three weekend games from Chi- cago, to within 4½ games of the American League-leading White Sox. But a victory by Boston and a twinnbill sweep by the Minnesota Twins created a three-way tie for second place.

Detroit manager Mayo Smith, whose club now has beaten the Sox four out of six games was hoping for a sweep of the series to make some head- way, but added:

"This race is going to be a dog fight to the bitter end. Un- less some club gets a lot of inju- ries, anyone of six teams could win the pennant."

Sparda out-dued Chicago's Gary Peters, now 10-4, in pick- ing up his ninth victory in 10 decisions and his third shutout.

Dot Germain Ties for 11th

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—A 72-hole score of 75-78-79-70— 302 put Dorothy Germain of Blythe- ville, Ark., in a three-way tie for 11th place in the $25,000 U.S. Women's National Open Golf Tournament here Sunday.

The 20-year-old Arkansas state women's amateur golf champion would have collected $550 had she been playing pro- fessionally.

Catherine Lacoste, who also is an amateur, won the tourna- ment with a 294 total.

Banning Junk Mail

Junk mail floods post offices throughout the country, and its great bulk is most likely one of the reasons the U.S. Post Office is costing the people more. Congress apparently does not feel inclined to curb it, and so a law student in California thinks the people should take matters into their own hands.

The student, an undergraduate at Stanford, has found in the law that the Post Office is required to deliver everything unless instructed not to. So he tackled on his mail box a notice that the postman should not drop junk mail into the slot. The Post Office said the young man could not do that, but he insisted that he could. Washington is taking a long look at the case. Meanwhile, back at your mailbox . . . — Atlanta (Ga.) Journal and Constitution

Hicken . . . Who?

A member of the United States Senate has admitted without the bat of an eye that use of his name brought financial gain. The case involves Iowa Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper who learned early in life the value of his name.

"When I was a young boy," he recalled, "I was once sent to the drug store to get an order of asafetida — a remedy which people thought would cure colds. I was told to put it on a charge account."

"The clerk asked my name, and I told him 'Hickenlooper.' He looked at me for a moment, then slowly shook his head. 'Take it for nothing,' he said, 'I wouldn't even try to spell both asafetida and Hickenlooper for a dime.'"

Patient Understanding

Newspapering is a business which probably generates more clashes of opinion than any other calling except politics. Let an editor erupt on any but the most innocuous of topics and the reports are instantaneous.

The Houghton Line, brochure of E.F. Houghton & Company of Philadelphia, states the case rather well for both sides of an issue with: "We always try to be patient with any man who disagrees with us. After all, he's entitled to his own ridiculous opinion." — Greenville (S.C.) News

Jobs Promised Negroes at Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Residents of the riot-torn lower East Side await fulfillment of a promise of 300 jobs for unemployed Negroes—a promise that had much to do with ending three days of racial disturbance last week.

The Citizens Council on Human Relations made the pledge Friday after rampaging gangs of young Negroes swept the district, destroying property, setting fires and looting. Police used tear gas and shotgun fire to quell the mobs.

Several Negro groups pledged Sunday to hold the mayor and other community leaders to their promise of more employment.

The Buffalo chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People called the promises a "commitment from the white power structure." Another group asked for job centers and grievance machinery.

There were several isolated incidents early Sunday but relative calm settled over the district by nightfall.

Funnel Fails to Touch at Marked Tree

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP) — A funnel-shaped cloud whirled across the skies over Polk County Sunday, but apparently didn't touch down.

No major damage was reported, although some areas reported that telephone and power lines were down about three hours.

Heavy rains and high winds accompanied the twister, which apparently followed a southeastward path from a point between Jonesboro and Weiner to a point just east of here.

A large tree was blown down on Arkansas 18, about four miles west of Jonesboro.

The funnel passed over Marked Tree about 4:15 p.m. The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock had reported earlier that an airplane pilot had sighted it about 15 miles west of here, and the county sheriff's office reported three earlier sightings north of Weiner.

Plane Victim Was Arkansan

May Be a Shock But Cinderella's Shoes Weren't Glass at All

When the Hope Rotary Club had its weekly luncheon meeting in the Town and Country last Friday, it was time for retiring President Paul Klipsch's valedictory. Incoming President Clyde Fouse made a few remarks, also, and he promised a more thorough outline of plans for the ensuing year at the first meeting in July.

Thanks were expressed to all retiring officers and committee members, and secretary B. N. Holt made a short statement about attendance rules and the by-laws governing make-ups.

Besides the club members, others present were Syd McMath and the Rev. Everett Vinson.

Nation Will Observe 191st Year

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The nation is prepared to commemorate its birth in Philadelphia 191 years ago Tuesday with fireworks and parades but the war in far-off Vietnam and the soldiers who have died there strike a somber note.

Philadelphia, where the Declaration of Independence was announced July 4, 1776, is in the midst of a week of celebrations which will reach a climax Tuesday. Fireworks displays, special sporting events, concerts and parades are planned.

Activities center on the small group of buildings where the Continental Congress met in 1776, now part of the Independence National Historic Park. They will include reading parts of the Declaration of Independence, and a parade by 3rd Infantry Old Guard units in colonial dress.

Services are planned by veterans groups in Philadelphia as a memorial to Americans who have lost their lives in Vietnam and other wars.

President Johnson and his wife are enjoying a holiday stay at their ranch in Texas. Their oldest daughter, Lynda Bird, relaxed with the young set at Rehoboth Beach, Del., an Atlantic shore resort.

Like the First Family, many others across the country used the five-day holiday for relaxation and fun, be it at a lake or shore resort, in the country, or before a backyard barbecue.

Murder and Suicide at Malvern

MALVERN, Ark. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dewey Bloomer of Malvern died Sunday as the result of what Hot Springs County Coroner Robert H. White called a murder-suicide.

Sheriff Arville Allen said both were shot about 4:15 p.m. inside a building at a wrecking yard at the intersection of U.S. 270 and 67, just north of here. A .32-caliber pistol was found at the scene.

Deputy Sheriff Harol Thornton, who had gone to the wrecking yard to investigate reports of a disturbance at the Bloomers' nearby trailer home, heard two shots inside the building just as he stepped from his car, Allen said.

After breaking down a locked door, Thornton and State Trooper Lyndal Holcomb found Mrs. Bloomer dead with a wound in her left temple, Allen said.

Bloomer, 33, was wounded in the right temple, the sheriff said, but was still alive. He was taken to a Little Rock hospital, where he died several hours later.

Allen said Mrs. Bloomer had been beaten before her death. The two had been married about three months, he said, and had three children each by former marriages.

Bloomer was employed at the wrecking yard.

UN Nearing Middle East Crisis Vote

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly neared a vote today on the Middle East crisis as sponsors of two rival resolutions vied for the two-thirds majority necessary for approval.

The 122-nation assembly, in emergency session by Soviet request since June 17, had agreed to hear explanations of both resolutions and start voting this morning. But the 17 non-aligned countries sponsoring one of the resolutions sought to delay the voting while they dickered with 14 French-speaking African countries for possibly decisive votes.

Meanwhile, 23 Latin-American and Caribbean countries, already committed to vote for the competing resolution sponsored by 19 of their number, caucused to decide whether they all should vote against the non-aligned proposal or whether some of them might abstain.

The maneuvering for votes was crucial, because neither resolution has been sure of getting the majority needed for adoption.

Both resolutions call for Israel to withdraw its troops from the areas of Egypt, Jordan and Syria occupied in the war June 5-10. They differ over whether other Middle Eastern problems should be tackled at the same time as the withdrawal, as the Israeli's insist, or left until later, as the Arabs demand.

The Latin-American resolution "urgently requests" (a) Israeli forces to withdraw and (b) the parties in conflict to end the state of belligerency which the Arabs have maintained since Israel was established in 1948. It asks the Security Council to guarantee the independence of the countries of the Middle East and freedom of transit through international waterways there and to solve the Palestine Arab refugee problem.

The nonaligned resolution calls on Israel to withdraw immediately. It asks that the council "consider urgently all aspects of the situation in the Middle East" and seek a solution of all legal, political and humanitarian problems—but not until "immediately after the withdrawal."

Caradon said the outbreak of new fighting at the Suez Canal "adds urgency to everything we do." But solving the Middle East problems might take months or even years, he added.

3 Accidents Here Are Investigated

Three minor auto accidents were investigated over the weekend by City Police.

Saturday on North Hervey cars driven by Mrs. James Pruden and James O. Rowe collided with minor damage resulting, reported Officers Shirley and Neal.

On Third Street an auto owned by Alex West rolled back into another driven by Mrs. Delva Stollenberg of St. Jose, Calif. with minor damage, according to Officer Shirley. Mr. West failed to put the vehicle in parking gear.

Later the same day on S. Elm cars driven by Erma Jones and Perry Cheatham collided with minor property damage. Cheatham was treated for minor injuries at a local clinic, said Sgt. Ward, Patrolman Milam.

Conway Man Heads Bus, Truck Group

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—S. K. "Stu" Prosser of Conway, state Civil Defense director from August 1962 until March 1 of this year, has been named general manager of the Arkansas Bus and Truck Association, it was announced here Saturday by Loyd Ramer, president of the association.

The appointment is effective July 10, Ramer said.

Israel Reports Attack by Egypt But No Major Offensive Is Expected

Egypt, Israel Troops Battle at Canal

Egyptian and Israeli troops clashed at the Suez Canal for the third day today as the United Nations prepared to vote on demands for the withdrawal of Israeli troops and Israel said thousands of Arab refugees could return home.

The Israeli army said Egyptian troops on the canal's west bank fired for 20 minutes at Israeli soldiers on the east bank near El Qantara, about 25 miles from the canal's northern entrance.

The Israelis said the Egyptians fired across the canal a second time two hours later, but the Israeli troops returned the fire and the Egyptians quit shooting.

Israel, which captured nearly all of Egypt east of the canal in the June 5-10 war, reported three such machine gun and mortar attacks Sunday on its positions near El Qantara. The Israelis said they silenced the Egyptian gunners each time.

Radio Cairo said Egyptian forces in position on the eastern bank turned back an Israeli attack and destroyed six tanks and nine armored cars in two days of fighting.

The two sides clashed Saturday night on the east bank. Egypt claimed its men had been there all along. Israel said about 100 Egyptians had crossed the canal and penetrated about nine miles into the Sinai Peninsula before being driven back across the waterway.

Each side protested to U.N. Secretary-General U Thant that the other had broken the June 10 cease-fire.

Israeli army spokesmen reported seven Israelis wounded Saturday night and one Israeli officer seriously wounded and "several" men slightly hurt Sunday.

Egypt made no mention of losses or casualties.

At the time of the cease-fire, Egypt had a force in Port Foad, on the east bank across from Port Said at the canal's northern entrance. Radio Cairo claimed the Israeli were trying to move on Port Foad.

Israeli military men interpreted the new outbreak as an attempt by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser to rally his shattered army against the threat of an Israeli invasion. The Israeli newspaper Maariv quoted political informants in Jerusalem as saying the Egyptians might be trying to influence the U.N. General Assembly to vote for the withdrawal of Israeli forces.

By DENNIS NEEDLE
TEL AVIV (AP)—Israel's military command, which claims Egypt started the renewed fighting with attacks across the Suez Canal, believes there may be a series of Egyptian raids across the cease-fire line but it expects no major offensive to recapture lost territory.

After its bloody mauling in the Sinai Desert three weeks ago, the Egyptian army is in no shape to launch a determined assault across the canal or to establish a bridgehead on the eastern bank of the waterway.

The principal Egyptian objectives are believed here to be political, not military. President Gamal Abdel Nasser is anxious to maintain the belief among his people that the war is continuing.

The theme of Egyptian propaganda for internal consumption always has been that the country suffered a setback in Sinai but did not lose the war. Egyptians have been urged since the cease-fire to prepare for the next round.

With shooting going on along the canal, Egyptians are more likely to accept the inevitable economic hardships at home.

As the Israelis see it, by maintaining war hysteria Nasser may also hope to stifle criticism of his government's policies and maintain his own dominant position.

Another political objective, according to the Israeli assessment, is to maintain the illusion that Egyptian forces never entirely quit the Sinai and kept a foothold on the eastern bank of the canal.

Asked whether Israel regards the canal as the cease-fire line, a military spokesman replied: "definitely yes."

He claimed no Egyptian troops are established on the eastern bank of the waterway.

Israeli government sources say that Egypt, through the renewed fighting, may be trying to influence current U.N. General Assembly deliberations and perhaps create a situation to prompt the intervention of the Security Council.

No Code, Senate to End Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate likely will end its current session without a new code of ethics, says the vice chairman of the panel charged with drafting proposed standards of conduct.

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, said Sunday he doubts members of the Senate ethics committee will find much time to work on proposals when the Senate returns from a 10-day July 4 recess to face a sizable backlog of work.

It's all right to fly the American flag at night. Fly it all night, if you like, "as long as you do so with respect." This message comes from the United States Flag Association which further states, "It's your flag—not the property of any branch of the government—yours to fly when you desire." The impression that it is wrong to fly the flag before dawn or after sunset arose from the fact that the United States Army raises and lowers its flags at that time to indicate the beginning and end of the Army's normal working day. Nobody else has to follow that custom unless he wants to, says the flag association, pointing out that the flag flies at night over the Capitol when Congress is in session.

51 Marines Killed But Reds Halted

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines halted an infiltrating force of some 3,000 North Vietnamese regulars Sunday in a savage battle that cost 255 American casualties—51 dead, 34 missing and 170 wounded.

The Marines said they counted 65 Communist bodies and that planes, artillery and naval guns probably killed many more.

The battle took place in the long-threatened 1st Corps area just below the demilitarized zone. The Communists kept up heavy pressure today with thunderous, big gun barrages and an ambush that raked a 100-truck South Vietnamese convoy.

The war mounted in intensity on the ground and in the air above North Vietnam with these major developments:

1. The Marines stopped the elite North Vietnamese 90th Regiment moving south for an attack on the Marine outpost at Con Thien.

2. South Vietnamese headquarters said that about noon today a Communist force jumped a 100-truck supply convoy moving from Da Nang to Phu Bai with an escort of armored vehicles and two companies of troops.

Initial reports did not specify losses to the convoy.

3. The vital Marine airfield at Dong Ha was put out of use for five hours by Communist gunfire, and considerable damage was caused to the Air Force radar installations there which keep watch over the demilitarized zone just to the north. At least four Air Force men were wounded. The Red gunners fired 120 rounds at the installation.

4. The Air Force said three U.S. jets were lost in raids over North Vietnam Sunday. One pilot of a Navy Skyhawk jet was listed as missing in action. The pilots of two Air Force Thunderchief jets were picked up in daring helicopter rescues. One pilot hid overnight, and 32 aircraft participated in his rescue.

5. Troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division battled a guerrilla force Sunday of perhaps 250 men holding a concealed underground fortress in the foothills of coastal Bong Son Province. In a nine-hour fight the cavalrymen killed 75 Communist troops but had 19 dead and 33 wounded.

The sharp increase in action led to speculation that the Communists wished to show their muscle on the eve of America's July 4th day celebrations.

700 to 800 Holiday Deaths Feared

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Highway accidents snuffed out the lives of hundreds of Americans during the Independence Day weekend and the National Safety Council predicted hundreds more would die before the long holiday ends.

A council spokesman said today indications were that the pre-holiday estimate of 700 to 800 traffic deaths during the four-day holiday will hold.

Fatalities numbered 352 early today since the count began at 8 p.m. Friday. The holiday officially ends at midnight Tuesday.

The nation's worst accident during the weekend occurred on a straight stretch of Illinois 29 about 70 miles southwest of Chicago. Six teen-agers were killed in a head-on collision involving two cars Saturday night.

In Waynesboro, Va., a car carrying Gov. and Mrs. Mills E. Godwin Jr., collided with another automobile. A passenger in the other car was killed. The governor's wife suffered a broken ankle.

The worst Independence Day weekend for traffic deaths was last year. There were 576 fatalities in the three-day period. The worst toll for any holiday was 748 during the four-day Thanksgiving weekend last year.

There were 74 drownings and 81 boating fatalities throughout the nation early today since the holiday period began.
